

BEFORE THE
POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20268-0001

IN THE MATTER OF:

FERNANDINA BEACH DOWNTOWN STATION
FERNANDINA BEACH, FLORIDA 32034

DOCKET No. A2013-7

SURREPLY OF THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE TO THE PUBLIC REPRESENTATIVE'S RESPONSE
(August 6, 2013)

On July 22, 2013, Petitioner David A. Granger filed a request that the Commission issue an order immediately suspending the final determination in this proceeding pending Commission review. On August 2, 2013, the Public Representative filed a response supporting Petitioner Granger's request in which she indicated that the Postal Service planned to cease operations at Fernandina Beach Downtown Station on August 9, 2013. The Postal Service fully intends to maintain operations at the Fernandina Beach Downtown Station throughout the pendency of the review, thus Petitioner Granger's request is moot.

ARGUMENT

Contrary to the Public Representative's assertion, the Postal Service does not plan to close operations at Fernandina Beach Downtown Station on August 9, 2013. Since the Postal Service intends to maintain operations until the disposition of the Petition in this proceeding, the Postal Service did not challenge Petitioner Granger's application for suspension. Thus, the Commission need not rule on any request for suspension of the application of the final determination. Accordingly, Petitioner

Granger's request for suspension of the application of the final determination should be deemed moot.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
